Court opened. Case called. Josh Budwin announced ready for plaintiff and introduced co-counsel. Melissa Smith announced ready for defendants and introduced co-counsel.

Josh Budwin informed the Court that there are no more disputes regarding exhibits.

Mr. Budwin and Mr. Barr argued regarding the timing of informing each side of the objections to the deposition designations before trial each day. It was agreed that the receiving side will have until 8:30 p.m. to object.

James Quigley argued plaintiff's objections to defendants' deposition designations. Chris Shield responded. The Court made rulings.

The Court took a recess to give the parties time to meet and confer.

Mr. Quigley informed the Court of the agreements and objections that have been withdrawn.

Chris Shield argued defendants' objections to plaintiff's deposition designations. The Court ruled.

Court adjourned.
